

Understanding the Fable

Answer the following questions.

- Why did King Peacock hold the competition?
 - He felt very bored.
 - He wanted to choose the prettiest bird.
 - The competition was exciting.
 - There were many beautiful birds in his kingdom.
- The winner of the competition could.
 - live in King Peacock's palace for one month
 - have dinner with King Peacock for one week
 - play in King Peacock's palace for one day
 - sleep in King Peacock's palace for one year
- Read line 6: I stand no chance of winning! What does it mean?
 - Crow will stand up.
 - Crow will lose.
 - Crow will win.
 - Crow will wait for a good chance.
- Read line 8. The word 'there' refers to.
 - the palace
 - the stage
 - the land
 - the river
- How did Crow try to get the birds' attention?
 - by dancing
 - by talking
 - by singing
 - by flying

Values and Attitudes

8. What can you learn from the story?

We should not _____.

9. Have you or your friends ever cheated others? What happened in the end?

come up with:
to think of an idea

gorgeous:
very beautiful

We say 'it's someone's turn' to tell people it is time to focus on someone.

Language
Corner

6. We can find this story in a.

- letter
- leaflet
- magazine
- notice

Tip

There is a title and page number. Where can we find it?

7. Crow is writing a text message to her friend Swallow. Finish the message with only ONE word for each blank. Make sure your answers are grammatically correct.

Swallow,

In the competition, my borrowed feathers fell off!

All the birds (i) _____ at me. I felt very

(ii) _____!

Answer Key

- B
- A (Suggested answer)
- B
- D
- D
- C
- (ii) upset (i) laughed
8. We should not cheat.
9. Yes I have. I cheated
- in a test. In the end, my teacher punished me. (Answer may vary)
7. (i) laughed (ii) upset